A satellite view of Buck Thomas Park in Northeast Moore, Oklahoma. The park features several baseball fields with orange-brown dirt bases and green grass. A large, irregularly shaped pond is visible on the right side of the park. To the left of the park is a residential neighborhood with many houses and streets. A red pin marks the location of Buck Thomas Park, and a yellow pin marks Sweettooth Snowcone. A white box in the bottom right corner displays measurement information: 'Measure distance', 'Click on the map to add to your path', 'Total area: 58,354.80 ft² (5,421.34 m²)', and 'Total distance: 976.89 ft (297.76 m)'. The map interface includes a search bar at the top left, a menu bar with options like Restaurants, Hotels, and Things to do, and a bottom right corner with a Layers button and a scale bar.
