By completing this form, you are filing a formal complaint against an individual or entity. You must provide sufficient information to properly investigate your complaint as well as a summary of evidence available to you at this time to support your claim. Please note that an investigation must be based on facts or circumstances that you personally observed or heard. If you do not have any personal knowledge of a fact or circumstance, you must provide sufficient information to permit us to contact the individual who does have such evidence.

COMPLAINT INFORMATION

Ongoing: 2016-present; concerns documented 06/26/2025-present

Pottawatomie County, Oklahoma

Date of Incident

Place of Incident

Pottawatomie County / Board of County Commissioners; participating county public-school districts; officials responsible for education-sales-tax administration and approvals.

If your complaint is against a public entity, give the name of the agency and any specific individuals within that agency who are connected to the incident.

N/A - complaint concerns public entities and administration of voter-approved public funds.

If your complaint is against an individual, give their name and relationship to you.

Describe in detail the incident, any injuries you received and how the Attorney General can aid you in resolving your issue.

See attached Complaint Narrative and Request for Independent Review. The complaint concerns whether education-sales-tax-funded utility and operating costs at Pottawatomie County public-school athletic facilities used for privately administered USSSA events are properly allocated, reimbursed, incorporated into rental charges, or otherwise documented. No allegation is made that utility payments themselves are prohibited or that any individual has committed wrongdoing.
