assumptions, tournament projections, comparative facilities, and operations and maintenance estimates.

Please provide the following:

I. The Full Study & Supporting Documentation

1. The complete economic impact study presented on December 19, 2011.
2. All appendices, supporting tables, spreadsheets, and modeling inputs.
3. The one-page summary document distributed at the meeting.
4. Any draft versions of the study.
5. The engagement letter, contract, scope of services, and payment records between the City and Oklahoma State University or the economist involved.
6. All communications (emails, memoranda, notes) between City staff and OSU or the economist regarding preparation, revision, or clarification of the study.

II. Assumptions & Comparative Analysis

The transcript reflects discussion of:

- 17 baseball and 2 soccer tournament assumptions.
- 40-team averages with 50% local team exclusion.
- Use of federal travel reimbursement rates as a high estimate.
- Comparative review of Ardmore, Chickasha, Bixby, Broken Arrow, Midwest City, Edmond, and North Oklahoma City.

Please provide:

1. Any written documentation supporting the tournament count assumptions.
2. Any comparative facility analysis or benchmarking documents used.
3. Any data sources used to determine visitor spending assumptions.
4. Any documentation supporting the retail sales tax projections discussed.
5. Any fiscal impact analysis separating municipal revenue from total economic output.

III. Operations & Maintenance Projections

The transcript reflects reference to annual operations and maintenance figures derived from the Jacobs Master Plan (~$340,000 annually).

Please provide:

1. The Jacobs Master Plan section relied upon for O&M projections.
2. Any additional lifecycle cost estimates or break-even analyses related to the proposed complex.

IV. Public Posting & Follow-Up

The transcript reflects that staff indicated the study would be posted on the City's website and that questions could be forwarded to the OSU economist 12-19-2011 City Commission Meet...

Please provide:

1. Documentation showing when and where the study was posted online.
2. Archived copies of any webpage hosting the study.
3. Any written questions submitted by commissioners or members of the public.
4. Any written responses or clarifications provided by staff or the economist.

V. Subsequent Reliance

1. Any subsequent agenda items, memoranda, presentations, grant applications, or bond/tax proposals that referenced or relied upon this economic impact study.

If any records are withheld, please identify the specific statutory exemption relied upon.

Please provide records in electronic format.

Thank you,
Kenneth Crawford
